THE MUSINGS OF THE PASTOR

Three decades ago the parishioners of St. Francis of Assisi voted to participate in a Parish Twinning Program with the Conversion of St. Paul Parish in Leon, Haiti. We have certainly experienced the love of the Haitian people as we have undertaken various works of mercy for people in the parish. I want to call your attention to another matter regarding the people of Haiti. On November 20, 2017, the Department of Homeland Security announced termination of Temporary Protected Status (TPS) for Haiti. TPS is a temporary, renewable, and humanitarian program authorized by statute that permits individuals to remain and work lawfully in the U.S. during a period in which it is deemed unsafe for nationals of that country to return home. There are an estimated 50,000 Haitian TPS recipients living in the U.S.

Bishop Joe S. Vásquez of Austin, Texas, Chair of the USCCB Committee on Migration, issued the following statement in response to the termination of TPS for Haiti on November 21, 2017:

“Yesterday’s decision to terminate TPS for Haiti is deeply troubling. As discussed in our recent delegation trip report [‘Haiti’s Ongoing Road to Recovery: The Necessity of an Extension of Temporary Protected Status’], Haiti is not yet in a position where it can safely accept return of the estimated 50,000 Haitian nationals who have received TPS. This decision will devastate many families with TPS members, including those with U.S. citizen children. It will tear individuals from their loved ones, homes, careers, and communities. It will also have direct negative consequences for many in Haiti who rely on remittances for vital support.

Our nation has a responsibility to provide continued temporary protection until TPS holders’ return and reintegration can be safely accomplished. Catholic Social Teaching recognizes a duty to not to turn our backs on our neighbors in need. Scripture states: ‘If someone who has worldly means sees a brother in need and refuses him compassion, how can the love of God remain in him?’ (1 John 3:17). Our Haitian neighbors, at home and abroad, need our compassion, while their country rebuilds and recovers. Yesterday’s decision [on November 20, 2017] ignores such needs.

The administration has provided an 18-month period during which TPS recipients from Haiti can legally stay in the United States and prepare for their departure. While this time is appreciated, it will not remedy the protection concerns and family separation that Haitian TPS recipients will face.

Congress needs to find a legislative solution for long-term TPS recipients and enact legislation that keeps these families together.

Our prayers and continued support are with the Haitian people who have deep ties to our communities, parishes, and country. These are business owners, successful professionals, home owners, and parents of U.S. citizen children and most importantly, they are children of God.”

THANK YOU ST. FRANCIS FROM LITTLE SISTERS OF THE POOR

The love and support that you gave the Little Sisters of the Poor was a sign of your genuine Charity. The collection amounted to $5,031. Your gifts are truly a sign of God's loving and caring Providence, which will help us provide the best possible care for many elderly in need who come to make their home with us. Thank you all! Our Residents join with us in promising you our daily prayers for all your many intentions. God bless each and everyone of you! The Little Sisters of the Poor & Residents of the Jeanne Jugan Residence

I would encourage any parishioners who want to urge continued protection for Haitians while their country continues to recover to contact Justice for Immigrants. I think that is good for us to ask Congress to take leadership on this issue and consider the importance of TPS for families and for our communities. It is most appropriate that Congress work with immediacy to find a legislative solution to families with TPS members. If you want to take action now on behalf of Haitian TPS recipients and their families, the email address is jfi@uscce.org.

Until next week,
Fr. John Dillon

RCIA

The Rite of Acceptance and Welcoming will be celebrated at the 11:15 a.m. Mass next Sunday. This Rite is the first of the public rites celebrated in the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). The inquirers will declare their intention to continue their journey of faith toward reception and full initiation into the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil. At this Rite, those who will be baptized at the Easter Vigil in April will become Catechumens and those who are already baptized and will be received into full communion with the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil will become Candidates. The St. Francis community, represented by the sponsors, will offer its support and witness to these inquirers as they continue their faith journey.

THE HOLIDAY BAZAAR

The Bazaar has been a tradition at St Francis now for over twenty five years. This year Millie's Bake Shop was a hit with all of the kids. Mary Francis and her many friends made sure the wheel kept spinning. Shabby Chic, as always, had wonderful gifts and treasures for everyone. Thanks to the Beall family, who always do a great job with Shabby Chic. Karen Mason always has so many interesting religious items for everyone to choose from. The Silent Auction, headed up by Debi Dicello, had many wonderful baskets and items to bid on.

There were many beautiful handmade crafts and ornaments made by several of the parishioners. The crafters who gave of their time and talents were Jane Tom, Geri Prelewicz, Sara Becker, Doris Chung, Margaret Talcott and Mary O'Sullivan. The Jewelry Boutique was a big hit. Linda Call and her helpers always do a great job. The raffle, spearheaded by Linda Foster, was a great success. The Flea Market was also a great success. Pat Badolato and her helpers did a great job converting the rectory into a buyer's haven. Marie Purdy did a great job organizing and overseeing the 24 outside vendors that participated in the Bazaar. Nadine Edwards headed up the Café Assisi with its many appetizing treats. Coffee and donuts were a great treat - thanks to Sylvia Jones, it kept everybody warm and awake during the day. There was even a visit by Santa Claus (aka Fr. John). There were several other people who stepped up and volunteered to help out. They were there to help set up, volunteer during the Bazaar and help clean up afterwards. I would like to thank everybody who helped. It takes many people to run the Bazaar, without volunteers there would be no Holiday Bazaar. Thank you also to all of the parishioners who came out and supported the Bazaar. This is a major fundraiser for the parish - $18,000 when all is said and done!

God Bless & Thank You!
