RCIA

The third scrutiny will be celebrated at the Sunday evening Mass. The scrutinies are rites of self-searching and repentance for those seeking initiation into the Catholic faith at the Easter Vigil. They are meant to uncover, then heal all that is weak or sinful in the hearts of the elect; and to bring out, then strengthen all that is upright, strong and good. Today's Gospel reading of Lazarus will fill the spirit of the elect with Christ the Redeemer, who is the resurrection and the life. During our Lenten journey, we should use the scrutinies of the elect to prepare ourselves for Easter. Please, continue to pray for our elect, Brandon Cao, Nala Ton, Giselle Hernandez, Emily Hernandez, Kimberly Hernandez, Jacob Hernandez, Eric Moss and our candidates, Karla Capellan, Juan Veloz, Robert Blankenbaker and Jamie Popernack

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

THE MUSINGS OF THE PASTOR

Last week I began what will be a series of columns on Being Catholic Today: Catholic Identity in an Age of Challenge, a Pastoral Letter that Cardinal Wuerl issued on May 24, 2015. The Cardinal identified five key themes of being a Catholic today. I want to devote this column to the first theme: Our Catholic identity is given to us by Jesus Christ in the Sacrament of Baptism and the communion fellowship of the Church. This is our encounter with him.

When we were baptized, we were reborn as members of God's family. Cardinal Wuerl also teaches that Baptism is the sacrament in which we are reborn. In Baptism we die with Christ and our sins are forgiven. Through Baptism we rise to a new and divine life as members of Christ, sons and daughters of God, and heirs of everlasting life. Baptism, like Confirmation and Holy Orders, imprints a permanent character or sign; this identifies the recipient as belonging forever to Christ. Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Orders may not be repeated.

In Being Catholic Today, Cardinal Wuerl goes on to describe the Church as a family. Christ has a spousal relationship with the Church. He is the bridegroom; the Church is the bride. The Church is our mother from whom we receive the gift of new life in faith through celebration of the sacraments. Through Baptism we are incorporated into Christ as his brothers and sisters; we are members of the family of God. In God's plan we are called to love him and one another in truth as a family. At Pentecost, the distinct beginning of the Church, the Church was established by Jesus Christ. The Church is not simply man-made. It is not a business, a club, or a special-interest group. The Church is not the result of like-minded people coming together and deciding to form an organization, nor are her moral teachings decided by popular vote or societal trends. Like any family, the Church has a hierarchical structure: the pope in union with the bishops who form the touchstone of the apostolic faith. To be a Catholic is to recognize the role of the Church in the very means created and given by Jesus so that his work, accomplished in his death and resurrection, might be re-presented in our day and applied to us.

Cardinal Wuerl reminds that every time we make the profession of faith, we say, "We believe in the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church." Here we are simply affirming that we are Catholics and that Christ is present in his Church, as we also renew our dedication and offer our fidelity to the Church that brings us his truth and love every day. The Catholic Church is the home of the seven sacraments - Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Eucharist, Penance, Anointing of the Sick, Holy Orders, and Matrimony. The sacraments continue in a visible manner to manifest and effect the saving work of Christ in our world and in the lives of the faithful, giving us the grace to life the Gospel.

One final thought on this first theme: "Being a Catholic means to recognize a unique and special relationship with Jesus, risen from the dead, and his mission to bring everything to God the Father. We are not bystanders but rather participants in his work." (Being Catholic Today, p. 6)

Until next week,

2017 SHROVE TUESDAY PANCAKE SUPPER

Thank you to all the St. Francis parishioners who came out on a rainy cold night to celebrate Shrove Tuesday with a pancake feast. It was exciting to see so many new families with lots of young faces and all the familiar faces of all our parishioners who enjoyed breakfast for dinner. The evening's success is all due to the kitchen staff led by our kitchen manager Nadine who is always there to help with a smile along with Deacon Dan, Tom Reese, Chris Gonzales, Dan Verner and Christina Hamilton who frantically flipped pancakes to keep up with the crowd. A special thank you belongs to Georgana Finn, Sue Madison, Gary Palmer, Christine Sweeney and Jeanne Kavinski, who did all the prep work. Rose Hudecheck, served as the floor manager and kept every one hopping. Barbara Potter was our utility runner who kept the desserts and fruit tables full. A special thanks to Margaret Talcott and Jane Ruiz who filled in for the servers when the students left for class. Thanks also to Mary Kate Ryner, Alex Robbins and Marianne Moore who welcomed everyone with a smile as they collected the money while Meghan Jones, Amy Christopher, Jennifer Shannon and Rachael Seipp passed out beads. I want to acknowledge the 8th Grade Confirmation class who did a superb job serving food with a smile. Also, thank you to Chris Ryan, Al Butler, Rita Tomas and Sara Becker for your help with the fruit and drinks and the kitchen clean up done by Mary and Fred Kolberg. The rest of the sticky mess was handled by Rose Hudecheck and Marianne Moore. Last, but not least, I thank Donna Zizzo who made sure all the food was ordered and delivered on time. See you all next year! ~ Sylvia Jones

WALKING TO THE CROSS LENTEN PROGRAM

9:30a.m. Gathering Space

Walking to the Cross is a 40-day devotional designed for the Season of Lent. It invites you to make walking, reflecting and prayer a part of your daily Lenten practice. Group gatherings on Saturday will begin with a psalm and the opportunity to set a "movement goal" for the week such as walking or another reasonable physical challenge for yourself.
